

MINING EXPOSED 2009: "OUR NUCLEAR WORLD"

October 5 – 7, 2009 in Halifax, Nova

CONFERENCE HOTEL INFORMATION

Information for the Mining Exposed 2009 host hotels are listed below. Note: rooms are not guaranteed and you must reserve early to secure the most favourable rate.

Halliburton Inn

www.thehalliburton.com

Address: 5184 Morris Street, Halifax

Phones: (902) 420.0658 or (888) 512.3344

Group rate: $145 plus taxes.

Includes breakfast and parking. A wide range of intimate to oversized rooms, a library, complimentary internet, courtyard, and a 'serve yourself' honour bar.

A Historic Hotel Experience. A favorite downtown retreat for visitors and locals alike, The Halliburton offers a unique four-star hotel experience; a blend of contemporary amenities and personalized service in a historic setting. Halifax's historic boutique hotel. Signature dining and individually appointed guestrooms in a trio of heritage townhouses. Located on a quieter street in downtown just a short stroll from the historic Halifax waterfront but still close to popular restaurants and shops. Many historic attractions such as the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic and Pier 21 are within a ten minute walk.

Halifax Waverley Inn

www.waverleyinn.com

Address: 1266 Barrington Street, Halifax

Phones: (902) 423.9346 or (800) 565.9346

Group rate: $119 plus taxes for a traditional room and $149 for a standard room.

Upgraded rooms are available and can be provided at a reduced rate for Conference Delegates. Includes complimentary wireless internet access, hot breakfast buffet, evening tea, on site parking, and local telephone calls.

The Waverley Inn is relaxed, casual and friendly, and the service offered is helpful and unpretentious. Many say the ambience of the Inn takes them back to Victorian Halifax, when hospitality was more gracious and accommodations were considered a home away from home rather than just a place to sleep. The Waverley's owner, Abe, is often there to welcome you and share the stories behind each and every antique in the building.
